INDEPENDENT OVERSIGHT
COMMITTEE

- D. The Committee may: review all proposed research that is intended to be implemented in the IOC jurisdiction that involves clients and provide feedback on potential rights violations.

ARTICLE II. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Southern Arizona Independent Oversight Committee will be composed of at least 7 and not more than 15 voting members: as delineated in ARS 41-3803, 41-3804 and AAC R9-21-105

- A. The term of membership on the Committee FOR VOTING AND NON-VOTING MEMBERS shall last two years and can be renewed upon majority vote at the end of each term; there is not a limit on the number of terms a member can serve concurrently. Priority for voting membership shall be in filling the legislatively mandated representatives. Upon conclusion of the first term, a member is eligible to serve a second term by submitting a recommendation from the Committee to the Director for reappointment.
- B. Attendance at all meetings is required. Members with three unexcused absences may be subject to removal from the Committee by Committee vote, in which the absentee member will not be allowed to vote. An excused absence requires 24-hour notice to the Chair or Vice Chair. Extenuating circumstances may excuse this notice provision. Within 48-hours after absence, the member must notify the Vice Chair of extenuating circumstances.
- C. Members may be removed from the Committee by a majority vote of the remaining members for good cause. Removal from the Committee shall be by reason of violation of confidentiality laws; a conflict of interest with the purpose, focus or work of the Committee; unexcused absences from three (3) regular meetings; and/or failure to meet the minimum attendance requirements. In the event of violation of attendance requirements as set forth in these guidelines, the Committee may consider the position vacant and proceed to fill such vacancy as stipulated elsewhere in these Operating Guidelines.
- D. Membership on the Committee is contingent upon the member participating in confidentiality training and executing a confidentiality agreement. Members must also receive training in the Arizona Open Meeting Law requirements in person, virtual attendance or on-line video training. All members shall participate in at least one IOC site visit every year unless specifically exempted by vote of a majority of the committee. There shall be a minimum of two IOC members with appropriate identification (voting or non-voting) on each formal IOC visit. Visits to sites may be conducted with or without advance notice to the site.
- E. Adult students of accredited educational institutions, after signing confidentiality agreements, may be permitted to participate in site visits or other non-voting activities with approval of the chair, the vice-chair or a majority of the IOC and with approval of the specific site visit team.
- F. If a member has a conflict of interest the member must recuse himself or herself from vote. A conflict of interest arises in any circumstance in which the member's ability to exercise independent judgment, is or may be impaired. Failure to recuse is grounds for removal.
