DISTRICT CENTRAL INDEPENDENT OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC SECURITY
DIVISION OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

COMMITTEE GUIDELINES

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this society is the Independent Oversight Committee (IOC)

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES

- Section 1. The Independent Oversight Committee will provide independent advisory oversight, review and make recommendations so that the guaranteed rights (Arizona Disability Law 36.551.01.) will be protected for the persons with developmental disabilities who reside in the State of Arizona.
- Section 2. The Committee shall review all aversive or intrusive programs in order to ensure that basic rights and the rights to treatment are not infringed upon for the convenience of staff, relatives, or community. The committee may recommend approval of the program: recommend non-approval until changes and/or revisions are made in the program or recommend that program not be approved at all.
- Section 3. The Committee will review all behavior modifying medical programs and/or medications which can cause behavior change as a side effect. When the Committee reviews the use of behavior modifying medications, it shall receive information from the prescribing physician and the client’s interdisciplinary team describing the need for such medication and possible side effects. The Committee will ensure that basic rights and the right to treatment are not infringed upon for the convenience of staff, relatives, or community.
- Section 4. The Committee will review all allegations of possible abuse, neglect, or denial of recipient rights.
- Section 5. The written proposal of research projects will be submitted to the Independent Oversight Committee for review and comment. The Committee may request an interview with the person proposing the project to assure the research project will not deny any client rights of those clients who participate.

The Committee will ensure appropriate procedures are in place to protect the confidentiality and privacy of client information and records. All research must comply with Division of Developmental Disabilities policies prior to initiation.

COMMITTEE GUIDELINES

- Section 6. The Committee may review general rights issues, e.g., the right to adequate treatment, the right to public education, alone or in consultation with the District Program Manager and/or with any other State DDD personnel.
- Section 7. The Committee, in consultation with the District Program Manager, may visit a Division-funded day/residential setting in which a client for whom the Committee is reviewing a program lives or works, and attend Individual Program Planning meetings, and Program Review Committee meetings.
- Section 8. The committee, in consultation with the District Program Manager, may review all Incident Reports on a monthly basis.
- Section 9. The Committee, in consultation with the District Program Manager, may review records.
- Section 10. The Committee may, in consultation with the District Program manager, review proposed and existing policies and procedures or guidelines relevant to rights of persons being served by the Department and make recommendations.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1. Each Committee will be composed of at least seven and not more than 15 persons with expertise in one or more of the following areas: psychology, law, medicine, education, special education, parent/guardian, sibling, or family member of an individual with developmental disabilities.
- Section 2. When there is a vacancy, the Committee may recommend membership of a nominee, upon at least majority vote, to the Director who will appoint the nominees to become a member.
- Section 3. No employee of the Division shall be a voting member.
- Section 4. No contract service provider or consultant may be a voting member.
- Section 5. Terms of members will end upon five or more unexcused absences in a calendar year. The Committee will formally terminate each membership with a majority vote.

ARTICLE IV: OFFICERS

- Section 1. The officers of the Committee will be a chairperson and vice-chairperson.
- Section 2. The officers shall be elected every two years and shall perform duties in the manner prescribed in these bylaws and by parliamentary authority adopted by the Committee.

ARTICLE V: MEETINGS

The Committee will meet at least six times a year.

ARTICLE VI: COMMITTEES

Ad Hoc committees may be formed and dissolved by the chairperson as needs arise.

ARTICLE VII: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

- Section 1. The rules contained in the current edition of the Roberts' Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Committee as long as such rules are not inconsistent with court settlements, Arizona Revised Statutes, rules, regulations or standard operating procedures or articles of these bylaws.
- Section 2. When a vote results in a tie, the chairperson shall make a determination.
- Section 3. A quorum shall be 50% of the current membership.

ARTICLE VIII: OPEN MEETING LAW PRACTICES

All Committee meetings shall be held in accordance with Arizona Revised Statutes pertaining to open meeting laws.

ARTICLE IX: CONFIDENTIALITY

All members will sign a statement agreeing to adhere to applicable statutes and rules regarding confidentiality.

ARTICLE X: ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

If the majority of Committee members cannot resolve an issue with the District Program Manager, the Committee will communicate in writing to the Assistant Director of the Division of the Developmental Disabilities, Department of Economic Security. This failing, the committee may follow practices of appeals and hearings. (R6-6-20)

ARTICLE XI: ANNUAL REPORT

The Committee shall issue an annual report which will summarize its activities and make recommendations on changes the Department should consider implementing.

ARTICLE XII: EXPENSES

Committee members will be remunerated by the Division for expenses incurred in the activities of their work. Such expenses will include mileage costs for travel, and conference costs and other costs which the District Program Manager deems appropriate. The Committee may also request the services of a consultant whose services will be paid for by the Division.

ARTICLE XIII: RECORDS

The Committee will keep written records of all open and executive meetings, including the rationale for a final determination and the voting record.

ARTICLE XIV: SUPPORT STAFF

District Central staff person will act as liaison and support staff for the Committee with no voting privilege. The role is to assist the Committee, and activities may include collecting, condensing, and preparing materials for the Committee; arranging presentations; acting as interface between the Committee and department staff; preparing agendas for the Committee; physical meeting preparation; conference preparation and administration. In consultation with the Committee, the staff person will prepare the Annual Report. The Committee may also request a consultant.

ARTICLE XV: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The chairperson will direct any Committee member to refrain from presenting a case or voting when a conflict of interest arises. Any member who considers himself/herself in conflict of interest will announce such a situation to the chairperson.
